LG Community Plan On Tonight's Agenda

The executive committee of the Lemon Grove Planning Association has called a general membership meeting tonight at 7:30 at Lemon Grove Junior High School auditorium to present the new community plan map for approval.

Changes adopted by the committee at its September and October meetings will be included in the text to be submitted for discussion and approval.

J. Davies Quits Chamber Board In Job Transfer

The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce board of directors, one member shy of a quorum, transacted no business officially at the board's regular meeting Thursday at Pal's Cafe.

The board noted the resignation of Joe Davies, manager of Imperial Savings, who is being transferred to Imperial's Pacific Beach facility. His replacement will be selected at the next board meeting.

Bill White, representing the Mount Miguel Community Aquatic Center which is being planned for the high school, gave a rundown on the needs and objectives of the project. The next meeting will be on November 29, a week later than usual because of Thanksgiving, according to Helen Myers, Chamber secretary.

Three Issues On Tuesday's Ballot

Here it comes again. An off-season election. That usually brings a small turnout.

Like it or not, your obligation is at the polls. Get there Tuesday and vote.

The major issue is tax limitation. That's a statewide issue. The issue has become so bogged down in politics that they've made the emotionalism more important than the issue. But your mail has brought you arguments for and against Prop. 1. Read the material carefully—then decide.

The county charter amendment concerns both employees of the county and the people who pay the salary bill. The material submitted by opponents and proponents give voters a clear understanding of Prop. A.

Good Names

There are good names in the Fire Protection District Board of Directors elections in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley.

In Spring Valley, two directorships have attracted five candidates.

In Lemon Grove, one directorship attracted two candidates.

In each district, one incumbent is on the ballot.

In local elections, such as in fire districts, names is the key. And when we get to names, emotions become involved.

If you know the candidate and believe in him, that's the way to vote. But this is the Big County. You can't know all the candidates. But they're listed here for your guidance.

Lemon Grove Fire Department candidates:

William E. Wardwell, the incumbent

Dennis E. Moreno, newsman

Spring Valley Fire District candidates:

Arthur S. Schafer, the incumbent

Earl R. Roland, a general contractor

Martin Carlsen, a college instructor

William R. Bridwell, a patrol service operator

Clifford Pennick, who served over 10 years, is not running for reelection. "I helped form the (Spring Valley) District and have served three terms. I am proud to have been a force in making the Spring Valley District one of the best in Southern California. There are other energetic candidates who can serve the district well. My decision not to run will give someone that opportunity."

Lemon Grove Candidates

Philosophies separate the two men seeking election to the Lemon Grove Board in Tuesday's election.

William E. Wardwell, of 3016 Nathan st., the incumbent, who has served as a director for eight years believes in local control of a department that would be responsible to the communities' specific needs.

"Our District is rated at the top of California's fire districts," he said. He noted that names, emotions become involved in the tax rate was reduced this year.

Wardwell is an executive with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. with which he has been associated 33 years. He has lived in Lemon Grove 21 years.

"Our main business is the protection of life and property," Wardwell said. "I am particularly proud of our record in this regard. I am also pleased that the cost of going about the fire business properly, has been reduced," he said. "The tax rate was reduced from .834 to .798 for this year. And there is no bonded indebtedness, either."

Wardwell's opponent is 25-year old Dennis Moreno of 2648 Citronella. Moreno is associated with Traffic Control, a traffic newsgathering organization which feeds information to eight radio stations.

Philosophy Differs

Moreno's philosophy differs from Wardwell's in that he believes that fire districts should be consolidated. "I became interested in consolidation when I was doing an investigation last year for KSDO, when I worked there. Better protection can come from all districts working for the protection of all," he said.

"I have also found that people do not know they have a board of directors. If I am elected I intend to change that."

Moreno said he had not attended any fire board meetings. He said he thought it would cause trouble if he attended after he decided to be a candidate. "I'll attend the meetings if I am elected," he said.

Election Day: 1973

This is the election year of the short form. The issues are not numerous, but they're important.

Voters in Lemon Grove and in Spring Valley will be voting on the same issues. Of the three elements only the names of those running for their local fire district board of directors will be different.

On the state level the measure is tax limitation.

On the county level it is whether to change control of county employees from civil service to control under the county board of supervisors.

On the local level, it is the fire district.

Many voters study the names and issues and are prepared to vote. This is how it should be.

But in every election more than 100 voters come to the newspaper or call and ask how to vote. When all else fails, we tell them what we believe to be best. Here's how it looks:

STATE PROP. 1

Tax Limitation (and about time)—

COUNTY QUESTION

Let County Supervisors set salary scale for County employees instead of Civil Service Commission

Board of Directors

LEMON GROVE FIRE DISTRICT — Vote for one:

William E. Wardwell

Board of Directors

SPRING VALLEY FIRE DISTRICT — Vote for two

Arthur S. Schafer, incumbent and Earl R. Roland, general contractor.

The election is Tuesday November 6 and you should have received a sample ballot with analysis and arguments. If you have not, call the County Registrar of Voters and request the material. His number is 565-5518.

Men vs. Women — Nothing Changes

Newspaper editors, facing the summer doldrums, frequently turn to quixotic devices to generate news in small communities.

Sixty years ago, in Eureka, S. Dakota, on a warm summer day, the editor of the local newspaper, with little else to occupy himself, conducted a postcard survey among husbands of the community.

The survey asked but a single question and required no signature on the return postals he sent out.

The question? "Why did you marry?"

Husbands seemed to have no hesitation in replying and here are some of the answers:

"That's what I've been trying to figure out for the past 11 years."

"Married her to get even with her mother, but never did."

"Because Sarah told me five other young men had proposed to her."

"Her father thought eight years of courtin' was almost long enough."

"Please don't stir me up."

"That's the same question friends ask me."

"Because I did not have the experience I have now."

"Because I had more money than I knew what to do with; now I have more to do than I have money."

"I yearned for company. Now we have it all the time."

"I wanted a companion of the opposite sex—she's still opposite."

In the sixty years that have elapsed things haven't changed much — woman's lib notwithstanding.

As long as women and men decide to live together, men will always take a slightly tilted view of the arrangement.

If it proves nothing else, this small foray into history shows men will never become subordinate to women as long as they give honest answers as they did to this Eureka editor's question.

Anxious Reader:

Yep. Governor Reagan's tax ceiling plan looks good. His program is better than the property tax reduction gimmicks the County Board of Supervisors have programmed from time to time.

You are joining the masses when you note that the tax rate reduction usually costs you more at the total tax bill end. The Board says it doesn't set the rate; the Tax Collector does — based on property values. The Collector says the rate is set by what the public demands in expenditures from the Supervisors. The Assessor says the value of property is set by what purchasers paid for similar properties in that neighborhood.

Anybody can get on that merry-go-round, but trying to get off is the trick.

DECA Sets Up New Store At Mount Miguel

By Rodger Price

Mount Miguel High School's DECA (Distributive Education Clubs of America) has become greatly organized as a result of a student store being opened on campus.

This store supplies students, also teachers, with a wide variety of items ranging from gym clothes, books and records to many other school supplies.

The store is expected to gross over $20,000 this year, according to the Club advisor, Don Le Compte. He said students earn credit working in this shop as they would in any other class. "It gives them insight into how a store operates."

All students in the class are DECA members, which has boosted the Club's size. Officers for the year are: Yolanda Marmelejo, president; Robert Chester, vice president; Vickie Fletcher, secretary; Dan Davis, sergeant-at-arms, and Darlae Bickly, historian.

Medicare Hospital Bills To Increase $12 in 1974

In 1974, Medicare beneficiaries will be responsible for the first $84 of a hospital bill, an increase of $12 over the present amount, according to HEW Secretary Caspar W. Weinberger.

The law does not give the Secretary any discretion in setting the Medicare hospital deductible but requires him to determine it for each year on the basis of the average daily cost of hospital care under the program. The base year is a calendar year preceding the prescribed time for the Secretary's announcement. The current increase is based on 1972 data and reflects increased hospital costs in that year.

"When the hospital deductible amount changes, the law requires the Secretary to make comparable changes in the dollar amounts a Medicare beneficiary pays toward a hospital stay of more than 60 days, or a posthospital extended care stay of more than 20 days," Arlyn B. Carr, Social Security District Manager in San Diego, said.

In 1974, when a Medicare beneficiary has a hospital stay of more than 60 days, he will pay $21 a day for the 61st through the 90th day, up from the present $18 per day. If he has a posthospital stay of over 20 days in an extended care facility, he will pay $10.50 per day toward the cost of the 21st day through the 100th day, up from the present $9 per day.

If a Medicare beneficiary ever needs more than 90 days of hospital care in the same benefit period, he can draw on his "lifetime reserve" of 60 days, and will pay $42 for each day used instead of the present $36 per day. Secretary Weinberger said the increase is consistent with the Cost of Living Council's policy governing price adjustments in the health industry.

Kahan's Reinstatement Opposed by District

Superior Court Judge Eli H. Levenson has taken under submission a request by the Grossmont High School District trustees to overturn a decision by the state commission on professional competence that reinstated controversial Helix High School English teacher Charles Kahan, 41.

The Commission ruled in August that Kahan should be reinstated. He was suspended in November after he was indicted by a federal grand jury in Phoenix on a charge of transporting marijuana. He was acquitted of the charge at a trial in Prescott, Ariz., and ordered reinstated.

$20,000 Loss Seen in VLM Separation

Lemon Grove's Fire District will lose $20,000 a year in tax revenue if the City of La Mesa annexes the Vista La Mesa area.

It is the area north of State 94 stretching from Massachusetts east to Campo rd. interchange. It is an unincorporated area within the Lemon Grove Fire Protection District.

The Lemon Grove Fire District's president William E. Wardwell, in a report to the Local Agency Formation Commission (LAFCO) pointed out that the annexation would have a "very serious and substantial financial effect upon the District."

He also noted the nearness of the area to the District in which they were now a part. "... fire protection and fire suppression will be materially reduced if the annexation is accomplished. This area is approximately .75 miles to 1.75 miles from the Lemon Grove Station," he wrote. "This is contrasted with approximately 1.5 miles to 2.75 miles from the nearest fire station in the City of La Mesa."

Residents of the area attempted to gain support for an annexation movement a few weeks ago. The movement is still in the talking stage, a resident of the area said.

In other business concerning the Fire Department, Fire Captain Bob Adams officially tabbed as arson a haystack fire several weeks ago at Miller's Dairy. A gasoline can was found at the scene.

Captain Adams told district officials that a new weed and rubbish abatement ordinance becomes effective on November 15.

The band's win earned the Matadors a trip to the New Year's Pasadena Tournament of Roses Parade.

Competing with the city and county's finest high school bands, the Miguel musicians scored 95 of a possible 100 points to grab the Autumn sweepstakes crown for the sixth time, more than any other band in the Autumn's history. Previous victories were in 1963, 1964, 1965, 1969 and 1971.

Poway took first place among the Class AA bands behind Mt. Miguel with 94.15 points while Helix High was second with 94.1 and Patrick Henry third at 90.8.

Tighter City Rules May Drive Massage Industry into County

by Max Goodwin

The control noose is tightening on massage parlors in the City of San Diego and if past performance records can be used as an indication, parlors will proliferate in the County.

San Diego Sheriff John Duffy has made pleas before the County Board of Supervisors for stricter county ordinances under which massage parlors will be allowed to operate— but without success.

Such parlors are numerous in the city because that's where the play is. While such parlors are in evidence in the county, it is said that patronage is not as spritely because the recognition quotient is higher. But once the city's parlors come under the heat, many of them will move to the suburban areas. Such parlors are already in operation on Broadway in Lemon Grove and Sweetwater rd. in Spring Valley.

If the sheriff is able to gain control support from the supervisors, undoubtedly the rules will follow closely those enacted by the city.

Rules Listed

The City Council adopted a tough set of rules which are to take effect next month, the courts willing. There is a question as to the constitutionality of the new rules. If they stand, massage parlors will flood into 300 feet of any residence or residentially zoned area.

The City Council completed hearings and enacted the law last week. The effective date is 30 days from the approval, that all masseuses be fully or November 25.

Controller Reports Tax Trends From Exemptions

SACRAMENTO — Substantially increased property tax exemptions for 1973-74 have played a major role in restraining growth of assessed values and basic tax rates in California's 58 counties, State Controller Hugh Flounoy says.

"Increases of 171 percent and 73 percent respectively in the homeowners exemption and the business inventory exemption have almost wiped out the growth in assessed value," Flounoy said in commenting on his Annual Report of Assessed Valuation and Tax Rates of the Counties of California.

"At the same time, reimbursements for these exemptions made to the counties from the State General Fund provide income which makes it possible for most counties to reduce tax rates for those services supported by countywide property taxes."

Flounoy said the gross assessed valuation of the counties for 1973-74 as reported by September 1 totaled over $69.1 billion, a growth of about 6.6 percent from the comparable total for 1972-73.

"However, the exemptions for 1973-74 totaled almost $9.4 billion, an increase of more than 80 percent from $5.2 billion the prior year," the Controller said.

"This resulted in a 1973-74 net assessed valuation of slightly over $59.1 billion, an increase of only $4 million or about .006 of one percent from the prior year."

Exemptions Grow
Increasing the individual homeowner's property tax exemption from $750 to $1750 this year accounted for almost $3.7 billion of the total growth in exemptions. Increasing the business inventory property tax exemption from 30 percent to 45 percent accounted for over $796 million more. Other types of exemptions, most not reimbursable to the counties, declined almost $139 million from the prior year.

"Proportionate increase of reimbursements by the State for the homeowners and business inventory exemptions will greatly help the counties meet their growing costs," Flounoy said. "At the same time, with stabilized assessed valuations many counties will be able to maintain local revenue levels with lower tax rates."

The Controller said 45 counties reported lower basic tax rates for 1973-74. The rates did not change for eight counties, including San Diego, and only five reported higher rates.

"San Diego County reported a 1973-74 tax rate of $2.71 as compared to $2.71 for 1972-73. The county's 1973-74 net assessed valuation is $3,885,590, 696 compared to $3,673,970,536 for 1972-73.

FAIR SHARE GIRL — Sharon Watters points to United Way goal thermometer painted on the side of the 320-foot American Airlines Flagship Tower in Mission Bay Park. Local giving has not made much of an impact on the total so far. Lemon Grove's goal of $11,190 is far short with only $275 registered as of this week. Spring Valley fared better: $912 of its $3,375 goal. Local leaders point out that larger contributors are yet to be solicited and a big jump is expected in November.

La Mesa Doctor Given Probation For Three Years

The Board of Medical Examiners, Department of Consumer Affairs, has placed Bobby Joe Brooks, M.D., 7808 El Cajon blvd., La Mesa, on three years probation for violation of the Business and Professions Code effective October 24.

In a disciplinary hearing conducted by the Office of Administrative Hearings Dr. Brooks was found guilty of unprofessional conduct in that he had committed an act involving moral turpitude and was convicted of a misdemeanor or involving moral turpitude in a court of law.

His license was revoked with the revocation stayed on condition of three years probation.

In August 1970, Dr. Brooks pleaded nolo contendere in San Diego Municipal Court to violation of Section 415 of the Penal code and was fined $25. Conviction of a crime and unprofessional conduct is cause for disciplinary action under the Business and Professions Code.

Tax Relief Payments May Be Doubled

SACRAMENTO — Property tax relief payments, non-existent five years earlier, became the sixth largest category of State expenditures during Fiscal Year 1972-73 and are expected to more than double during 1973-74, State Controller Hugh Flounoy said.

"Over $449 million was spent on property tax relief last year," Flounoy said. "This is expected to jump past $1 billion this year under the impact of increases in homeowners and business inventory tax exemptions and the addition of property tax relief for renters."

"Not included in the 1973-74 estimate is the effect additional public school financing by the State is having in reducing property tax rates in many school districts."

Original projections were that about half of the $563 million appropriation would be reflected in property tax reductions, but the actual figures will not be available until detailed fiscal reports on 1973-74 are completed by the individual school districts.

The Controller said the 1972-73 tax relief expenditures were exceeded only by the expenditure categories covering shared revenues (allocations of various taxes to cities and counties), business and transportation, health and welfare, education and higher education.

"Expenditures for property tax relief during 1972-73 were greater than the combined total expenditures for the legislative, judicial, executive, general administration, general debt service, and agriculture and services functions of State government," Flounoy said.

Graduate Students Aid Local School Programs

The Lemon Grove School District is benefitting from the educational assignment of 11 graduate students from San Diego State's School of Social Work.

Field Instructor Bill Fletcher has encouraged this year's students to become involved in the school system and the community of Lemon Grove as they work for their Master of Social Work degrees.

The contract for a fifth year of services between the Lemon Grove School District and San Diego State School of Social Work was approved at the Sept. 25 meeting of the School Board.

The students, available on a referral basis, have been placed in various schools and programs throughout the district involved in a full range of educational and community endeavors. These include counseling with parents and children, working with young groups after school and week-ends on special projects, assisting the Early Childhood education program and the Lemon Grove Junior High Information Center.

CHP Reports Drunk Driver Arrests Rise

A big increase in drunk driving arrests by the California Highway Patrol during the first 9 months of this year is believed to have contributed to a decrease in reportable traffic accidents and deaths, Supervising Inspector H. A. Porrazzo, Commander of the San Diego Zone said today.

Drunk driving arrests by Patrol officers statewide through September 30 totaled 86,581, up 19,070 or 28.2 percent compared to last year. "We are continuing our efforts to get the drunk driver off the road before he or she causes an accident," Porrazzo said, "and we think the decline in accidents and deaths tends to prove our enforcement program is getting desired results."

Reportable accidents in CHP jurisdictions numbered 43,719, a reduction of 1,491 or 3.3 percent. The number of traffic deaths was 2,326, down 30 or 1.3 percent.

In the San Diego Zone, which includes San Diego, Imperial, Riverside and San Bernardino counties, Porrazzo said there were 16,480 drunk arrests, up 3,882 or 30.8 percent. Reportable accidents totaled 6,746, down 71 or one percent. Despite the increase in arrests for drunk driving, the number of traffic fatalities in the Zone was 460, up 33, or 7.7 percent.

The CHP Commander said if present trends continue and the motoring public is safety conscious for the balance of this year, California may have a good traffic safety record for 1973 with fewer deaths than in 1972.

Kiwanis Head Thanks Public In Apple Sale

Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club's annual apple sale was a rousing success, ending last week with about 1,200 cases of the Red Delicious fruit sold. Club president Mike Carlen said. He expressed his appreciation for the public support, which helped fill the coffers of the Club's student loan fund and emergency funds for the kids of Lemon Grove.

Johnny Johnson, apple sale chairman, said the "Pickup Ltd" was a tremendous help in making deliveries for many of the Club members.

The Lemon Grove Kiwanis will have Red Delicious apples on sale again in late October of 1974.

Busy Week for SV Fire Dept. And Ambulance

For the week of Oct. 22-29, the Spring Valley Fire Department answered eleven fire calls and 12 ambulance calls, one for a traffic fatality. Most of the fire calls were to grass fires, some started by youngsters playing with matches, but there was one fire involving property damage.

On Oct. 28, at 9:50 a.m., the department received a call to go to an apartment complex, at 3917-21 Conrad dr. Indications were that someone had started a fire intentionally. Exact cause of the fire and amount of damage is under investigation. A spokesman for the department said there was heavy smoke damage and it was understood the building was under construction.

On Oct. 23, at 11:19 p.m., the ambulance was called to the canyon area, between Ranza and Quarry rd., near Sweetwater Lake. There Chief Darryl Stager and two civilians removed a man from the canyon, when his pickup truck left Southbay Freeway after going out of control. The helicopter of the Sheriff's Department was notified, and it located the man, David A. Hoover, 22, of 7607 Jamacha rd., San Diego. He was taken to Paradise Valley Hospital in the Spring Valley ambulance, but was dead on arrival at the hospital.

Bike-A-Thons Raise $120,000 For Diabetes

"Bike-A-Thons in Southern California alone have produced approximately $120,000 for diabetes in the past year," Steve Tallian of Lemon Grove reports.

Tallian, whose son Greg, is diabetic, is co-chairman of the Bike-A-Thon committee. He said that 12 research programs funded by the Diabetes Association are going forward in Southern California alone.

Some of the more promising leads in diabetes research include implantation of a sensing device capable of measuring the blood sugar continuously, and a mini-computer which can be programmed to deliver insulin when the blood sugar rises, and glucose when the blood sugar falls.

Other research efforts are directed toward the possibility of transplanting beta cells, the cells of the pancreas which produce insulin, and toward perfecting surgical procedures to transplant the pancreas itself.

"Because of the participation of riders and sponsors in the Bike-A-Thon, the future of the diabetic has not been so bright since the discovery of insulin 50 years ago, Tallian says.

new jobs needed annually in California, announced the state Department of Commerce.

Heartland YMCA Lists New Plans

Heartland YMCA unveiled a variety of new fall programs—appealing to the interests of every age group, Ralph Fish, program director announced.

A first for this year are the many programs designed for girls. They will include ballet, tap dancing, Y-Indian Maidens, Y-Indian Princesses, and Girls-Y Trailblazers. Girls can also participate in judo.

The Y-Indian Guides and Y-Trailblazers have continued to provide the opportunity for dads and sons to do more things together at Heartland. A new program called Gray-Y will offer boys in the 4th, 5th, and 6th grades a chance to plan and carry out their own events, under adult supervision. For those boys in grades 1-3 who don't have a father in the home, Little Braves will offer a male companion.

Swimming lessons will continue in the fall for all ages. Mos and Tots is the newest addition to the Heartland "Y" aquatics program, providing children between the ages of two and six a chance to learn to swim.

Classes will also be offered for beginning, intermediate, and advanced swimmers, and for adults. Lifesaving and SCUBA will teach the basic safety rules of water and offer water exploration.

The YMCA operates a certified nursery school and "Kindergym," a body coordination program for youngsters.

For adults, the "Y" offers classes in Belly Dancing (taught by "Nataraj"), jogging, square dancing, and jazz gym. Belly Dancing is one of the Y's most popular classes. Jogging and square dancing are relatively new programs which are expected to grow in time. "Jazz Gym" is a women's exercise class in which women exercise to music.

The Y-Single Parents Club is for divorced, legally separated, or widowed adults who may or may not have custody of their children. This newly-formed club engages in weeknight adult discussion groups and plans family activities.

The Grown-ups provides a place where socially and mentally retarded young adults can meet together twice a month for "Y" social gatherings. Trips to Lion Country Safari and Knott's Berry Farm are planned.

For those with special interests, the "Y" will also be taking enrollments for its cake decorating, guitar, tumbling, positive parenting, boys sports, and couples enrichment classes.

Mount Miguel School Advisory Council Seeking 10 Nominees

Plans to select nominees to fill 10 vacancies existing on Mount Miguel High School Citizens' Advisory Council were presented at the first regular meeting of the 1973 fall semester.

Five vacancies will be filled by citizens of Lemon Grove and five from Spring Valley. Total membership on the Council is 20 members, 10 from each community.

Letters are being sent to all local service clubs and organizations to generate interest and support as well as to obtain nominees for the Council vacancies.

At the same Council meeting, a new goal statement including 21 objectives in order of priority was distributed to members. This goal statement is the result of a highly successful community conference held at Mount Miguel High School last March 24.

That conference attended by 98 parents, alumni, students and school administrators studied school problems and developed a list of potential solutions which made up the new Advisory Council goals statement, after review and approval by the School District.

A committee was also selected at the meeting to formulate and establish a set of by-laws to govern the Citizens' Advisory Council.

Three student representatives, John Sison, John Lukacik and Mike Contreras, attended the meeting and agreed to contact school organization leaders to establish greater student awareness of the Advisory Council and its functions.

The purpose of Mount Miguel High School Citizens Advisory Council is to (1) promote a better understanding of the local educational program, (2) develop awareness of local citizenry to overall needs of the total district, (3) make the educational system more responsive to local community needs, and (4) serve in a direct advisory capacity to the local school principal.

Nominations for new Advisory Council members are open to the public. To be eligible as a Council member, a nominee must be 18 years or older and reside within the enrollment zone of Mount Miguel High School. Membership is for two years. Phone Mrs. Hogan at 463-5551 for other details.

Conquistadors Lend Excitement Under Chamberlain's Guidance

The excitement is in the Community Concourse nowa- days.

The San Diego Conquista- dors, led by the famed Wilt Chamberlain, provide excite- ment seldom seen on a basket- ball court in San Diego.

The games are well played and the locale is easily access- ible. You park in the Con- course garage for 50 cents, stay under the same roof, sit in comfortable theatre-type seats as the pair of strictly professional teams play their trade.

Wilt Chamberlain became the team's coach this year.

The first thing he did was to ask for some muscle up front—and Paul Stovall sud- denly appeared.

Stovall, a 6:6, 220-pounder who averaged 25 points and 15 rebounds as a senior at Arizona State, played 25 games for the Phoenix Suns of the NBA last season.

With the Suns, Paul aver- aged 3.0 points per game and 2.5 rebounds while seeing a mere 8 minutes per game in playing time.

With the Q's laboring on a 5 game losing skein, San Di- ego Coach, Wilt Chamberlain said, "...he'll help us much. The way we're going he has to help us."

In his initial outing for the Q's, Stovall scored 10 points and thrilled the crowd with a game-high of 11 rebounds although seeing a mere 20 minutes of action. In his sec- ond outing he helped the Q's to their initial home win of the season, a 122-102 victory over Utah with a nifty 6 re- bound and 7 point effort in his 14 minutes of play.

Centers Are Bigger
"The major difference I see between the two leagues," said the personable Stovall, "is that they (the NBA) have more big centers and they run a more fluid offense with op- tions off of their plays that seem to flow one into the other."

This is exactly the offense that Chamberlain is working on and he is endeavoring to augment it with a defense that tends to herd an offens- ive shooter into a trap... where rookie Caldwell (Cee- Jay) Jones is learning, the fine art of shot blocking from the master, Wilt Chamberlain.

There seems to be little doubt that Wilt's objective is to align a group of lithe leap- ards among his guard corps and tall, talented forwards to work with the toughest cen- ter combination in pro basket- ball... Wilton Norman Cham- berlain backed up by his pro- tege, CeeJay Jones.

Red Robbins, a Will-o-the- Wisp forward who is the ABA's third ranked career rebounder and Stew Johnson, the finest front line shooter in pro basketball are genui- nely compliments by the muscu- lar Stovall and 6:6 George Adams whose speed and leap- ing ability will work well into Wilt's plans.

Chargers Face Tough Game Sunday Against K.C. Chiefs

Look who's back! Harlan Svare and the Charg- ers.

And they're coming back with their heads up. They didn't win—but they didn't lose, either.

It was a miserable day in the Cleveland rain. But Mike Garrett didn't mind. The little rascal ran for 130 yards and caught five passes for 47 yards.

And the Chargers tied it 16-16. Svare needed that! It was a good game!

But enough of yesterday. The Kansas City Chiefs will supply the business-at-hand Sunday at 1 p.m.

Dan Fouts, the greatest thrower the Chargers have had since Johnny Unitas will be trying to put the Chargers in the win column.

It appears that more than 10,000 seats will be available on Thursday. There will be no local telecast. It will be broad- cast over KDEO radio with Stu Nahan and Ralph Lawler calling the game.

Kansas City 3-21 is unde- feated against AFC West opponents. The Chiefs beat Oak- land 16-3 and Denver 16-14. They beat New England 10-7; tied Green Bay, 10-10; lost to Los Angeles, 23-13, Cincinnati, 16-6, and Monday night they lost to O. J. Simpson and the Buffalo Bills 14-23.

But the Prince Charming of the Chargers is the former Chieftan Mike Garrett, Mike keeps each ball he uses to score against the Chiefs. He has six.

Facing the Chargers Sunday will be Otis Taylor, all pro wide receiver, Willie Lanier, Bobby Bell and Buck Buchan- an, respected defenders of Hank Stram's Chiefs.

Last year the Chiefs won at San Diego 26-14. The Chargers won at Kansas City, 27-17. Kansas City leads in the series 13-12.

Charger fans will vote Sun- day on the Man of the Year. Willie Lanier, who plays Sun- day for the Chiefs, won it last year.

A color photo of the Charg- ers will be distributed free to the first 25,000 fans Sunday.

Highway Patrol Cars Adding Blue In Emergency Lighting

The San Diego Area Com- mander of the California Highway Patrol reports that his office now has three new Patrol cars that are equipped with blue and red roof-mount- ed emergency lights, accord- ing to Captain Leonard De- Groff.

Rotating blue lights will join the familiar red and am- ber warning lights on Patrol cars of the California High- way Patrol. For the first time, light bars incorporating blue are being installed on top of CHP cars in the San Francisco bay area, the Los Angeles region and San Diego.

The blue lights are the re- sult of research which showed blue to be more visible at night and red during the day. Thus, blue and red will be combined in the light bar and will operate simultaneously, and under emergency conditions.

By the first of the year, about 150 of the new light bars will be in operation, and by spring, over 300 will have been installed on new Patrol

Monte Vista Zapped by Granite Hills 28-14

EL CAJON—Two weeks ago Monte Vista defense on runs Mt. Miguel held Granite Hills running back Larry Downs to just 24 yards, his lowest total in two years. Friday night the little speedster took his frustration out on Monte Vista, zipping for 210 yards in 29 carries and scoring all four Eagle touchdowns as they came-from-behind to nail Monte Vista, 28-14.

It was a fairly close contest until the fourth quarter. That's when Downs showed what he does best—run with the football. The speedster tallied two of his four touchdowns in the final chapter to lead the Eagles to their first league win, while handing the Monarchs their second loss against two wins in league action.

The Eagles got on the scoreboard first when Downs plunged in from the two. Monte Vista knotted the score at 7-7 in the second period when Pete Loftin galloped 21 yards for a TD. The Eagles took a 13-7 lead into halftime when Downs scored from the one.

Monte Vista took a 14-13 lead in the third chapter when Mitch Bonilla gathered in a Steve Perdue pass on a 22-yard play for six points.

Downs dazzled the Homecoming crowd in the fourth period. He blew through the Monte Vista defense on runs of 55 and 59 yards for touchdowns and iced the win for the struggling Eagles.

Matadors Beat Helix To Take League Lead

By Bill Ott, Jr.

SPRING VALLEY—It was the traditional rivalry game: Helix vs. Mt. Miguel with the Claymore at stake. The Claymore is a double-edged Scottish sword, the award going to the winner of this tough clash. Mt. Miguel won, 21-14.

There was only one thing wrong with last Friday night's game at Mt. Miguel. Somebody forgot to tell the Matadors that the Claymore came into view after the game, not during the game.

Mt. Miguel had their own Claymore. The Matador offensive line executed their blocking assignments well enough to enable Tom Gallagher to slash, knife, and cut his way for 175 yards on 20 carries for one touchdown. The win was important. It moved the Matadors into sole possession of first place in Grossmont League play.

Helix, inconsistent this year, threw a scare into the Matador hopes for a league championship and CIF playoff action. The Highlanders held the Matadors on the first series of play and scored seven goals scored with 56, over 20 more than the nearest person.

On Saturday, the team went into the Grossmont Tournament and came out with a win and a loss. The team again played El Cajon in the first game and won with Solomon again leading. They then played Grossmont less than an hour after the other game and lost 10-1, to the eventual champions of the tournament.

Mt. Miguel scored the winning touchdown on a 25-yard twisting run by Gallagher with nearly six minutes remaining in the game. The 80-yard drive was kept alive by a 20-yard burst by the big Miguel running back who enjoyed another fine evening and upped his season rushing mark to 652 yards on 108 carries.

Friday night the Matadors host winless El Cajon and LeRoy McGee, the league's leading rusher.

Renato Garcia Wins Main Go Jerry Quarry Due at Coliseum

by Max Goodwin

Friday was brawl night at the Coliseum. The card de-lighted fans who prefer slug-ging to the more artistic type of box fighting.

The main event provided enough slugging that the fans threw money in the ring for several minutes after the bout ended. It ended in a split decision with undefeated junior middleweight Renato Garcia, of Santiago, Chile getting the nod.

His opponent was the formidable Chu Chu Garcia (no relation) of Reynosa, Mexico. Renato now has a string of 19 straight wins as a pro—11 by knockouts. Chu Chu has a 34-14-6 record and has never been off his feet. That's meaningful because he fought Hedgemon Lewis, Denny Moynihan and Armando Muniz.

In the third, fourth, ninth and tenth rounds the fighters stood toe-to-toe and slugged. Chu Chu suffered a cut on his forehead in the fourth round but it caused him no difficulty.

In a 10 round semi, El Cajon's Tony Bellard got knocked silly by Tijuana's Texano Felix Jasso. It was another slugfest with the two lightweights pouring it on each other. In the fifth round it seemed only a question of which one could absorb the most punishment. Jasso could.

Matchmaker Mickie Davies will bring fourth-rated Jerry Quarry here November 9. Quarry meets Oakland's Steve Carter in the featured 10-day-use visitors.

The Quarry fight initiates weekly fights at the Coliseum. Davies anticipates a sell-out for the fight.

In a four rounder, Manuel Castillo of Dulzura won a split decision over Polo Lopez of San Diego. Castillo floored Lopez in the second round and that was the difference between winning and losing. It, as were the other bouts, was a free-swinging brawl.

Matchmaker Mickie Davies will bring fourth-rated Jerry Quarry here November 9. Quarry meets Oakland's Steve Carter in the featured 10-day-use visitors.

Gulls Win Cliff-hanger Meet Denver Here Saturday

Following a breath-taking last second victory last Saturday night, the Gulls will stay in San Diego all this week and play two games at the Roadrunners have won both games, 2-1 in overtime and 6-3.

Tonight the Phoenix Roadrunners are in town and Saturday evening the Denver Spurs make their first San Diego appearance. Faceoff for both games is 8 p.m.

Saturday night the Gulls snapped a three game losing streak with a last second 3-2 victory over the Portland Buckaroos. With the score knotted at 2-2 and the seconds ticking away, defenseman Connie Madigan made a perfect pass from behind the Portland net and left wing Jim Shires slapped the puck home at the buzzer.

Thursday night the Roadrunners will be making their second local appearance. The Mexico when Europeans first two teams met at the Sports Arena on opening night and the Gulls won 3-2. San Diego and Phoenix have met two times on Phoenix ice and the Roadrunners have won both games, 2-1 in overtime and 6-3.

Howie Young, the popular defenseman will be in the Phoenix lineup along with high scoring forward Bob Barlow and former Gulls Dave Woodley, Kevin O'Shea and goalie Gary Simmons.

Denver on Saturday will feature the Western League's current "bad man" in the person of left wing Ray Schultz. In his first six games, Schultz has already totaled over 70 minutes in the penalty box and is averaging just about one fight per game.

Tijuana Tomatoes Tomatoes were growing in second local appearance. The Mexico when Europeans first two teams met at the Sports

Around the Grossmont League

Joining Mt. Miguel in the win column of Grossmont League football action last week were Grossmont, Granite Hills, and Santana.

Grossmont pulled the shocker of the season with a 15-7 upset victory over previously undefeated El Capitan. The win put the Foothillers in a tie for second place.

Grossmont's upset win was paced by Pat Panzarella who ripped El Cap's highly touted defense for 145 yards and two touchdowns.

Granite Hills, a pre-season pick to battle for the league title, won their first league game, bouncing Monte Vista, 28-14.

Larry Downs sprinted for touchdowns of 55 and 59 yards for the winning margin.

Santana, a team that early in the season held a flat Mt. Miguel team to a 6-6 tie, squeaked by El Cajon, 7-6.

Aztec Gridders in Showdown For PCAA Conference Title

Two years ago San Jose State humiliated San Diego State 45-7, in a P.C.A.A. football game in Spartan Stadium.

Saturday at 7:30 p.m. the Aztecs (5-1, 1-0 in PCAA) will be in San Jose (4-3, 2-0-1 in PCAA) for the first time since that loss and the conference title will be riding on the outcome. That 45-7 loss is the worst Aztec loss since 1960 when Fresno State drilled the last pre-Coryell team 60-0.

"I expect San Jose State to be just as emotional this meeting as they were in 1971," said Aztec head coach Claude Gilbert. "They've played very well this season and a win Saturday would probably mean the conference crown. We'll have our hands full up there."

Last week the Aztecs came up with their best offensive effort since 1969 (a total of 37 games) with 590 yards total offense. That was the most yards gained since San Diego State stopped New Mexico State 70-21 and gained 769 yards.

Frank Geary rushed for 113 yards on 18 carries, which was the most yards gained by an Aztec back since Eddie Steward gained 123 on 12 carries against Northern Illinois in 1970.

"I was pleased with the win," Gilbert said, "but not with our play. We're not playing well right now or with much class. We're inconsistent and stop ourselves with mistakes."

Matador Water Polo Team Has Two More Wins

By Rodger Price

The Mount Miguel Varsity water polo team took its second and third straight league games last week. The team won easily over El Capitan, 18-11. Steve Solomon, as usual, led all scorers with 11 goals.

El Cajon proved a bit tougher but fell to four quick scores after fighting back to gain an 8-8 tie. Solomon had 8 of the Matador's points. He now leads the league in total goals scored with 56, over 20 more than the nearest person.

On Saturday, the team went into the Grossmont Tournament and came out with a win and a loss. The team again played El Cajon in the first game and won with Solomon again leading. They then played Grossmont less than an hour after the other game and lost 10-1, to the eventual champions of the tournament.

LETTER

Dear Editor:

We, the owners of Leewood Trailer Court, 7150 Broadway, Lemon Grove, had no idea we were so venerable.

We challenge the previous upstarts who have claimed the honor of "the oldest business in Lemon Grove."

For continuous operation in one location under the same ownership those other two firms are babies.

Six-year-old Leewood watched the installation of Molly's Texaco station. The Post Office, mentioned by Jerry Walter who claims his jewelry store was the first, was located in the small corner of a market at Main and Pacific streets when Leewood became an entity.

Although that Post Office didn't compare with the present modern facility, the first one was a beautiful green spot. The two elderly women who operated it were blessed with green thumb. Up the wall, over the counters and around the mail boxes twined a luxuriant growth of plants and vines.

Leewood Trailer Court, still owned and operated by Lee and Thelma Jordan and Jim and Jean Woody is well into its 28th year of operation.

But honor and fame are fleeting. Two-bits says someone comes up with an older claim. But remember the rules of the game, Mr. Editor. The same name, same ownership, same location.

Full House Seen For Toreros in Homecoming Game

A full house is the estimate of the crowd expected to be at the San Diego U's homecoming encounter with Azusa Pacific College Saturday night. The 7:30 p.m. contest will be aired by radio station KSDO.

With five straight wins and a tie following an opening loss, USD pits its 5-1-1 record against the 4-2 mark of a big Cougar squad that is attempting to atone for a 41-27 defeat in 1972.

The Toreros came from a fourth quarter 28-7 deficit at Humboldt State last week to tally three times in nine minutes and gain a 28-28 standoff despite operating without the services of star tailback Rich Paulson. Paulson, who has 11 touchdowns and 563 yards with a 7.0 rushing average, is listed to be in action against Azusa.

COMBO Auction Telecast Scheduled For December 5

More than 400 items will be sold in less than five and one-half hours on COMBO's second annual TV Auction, announced TV Auction Chairman Victor H. Krulak.

Krulak outlined the plans for this year's COMBO TV Auction at a special conference. The COMBO TV Auction will be telecast Wednesday, Dec. 5, at 8:00 p.m. on KGT Channel 10 and KPBS-TV Channel 15.

The COMBO TV Auction is a one-night event which raises funds for San Diego's major cultural arts groups by auctioning donated items on television.

Thousands of San Diegans will be able to bid by telephone from their own living rooms. "COMBO will increase its telephone bank from 50 to 85 phones this year," Krulak said. He said that the TV Auction phones will be divided between two separate exchanges this year so that there will not be an overload of calls.

Last year COMBO's TV Auction raised $79,000. This year, the Committee hopes to raise more than $85,000.

School District Board Opposes Tax Proposition

The governing board of the Jamul-Las Flores Union School District adopted a resolution in opposition to State Proposition 1 on the November 6 ballot during the regular board meeting Oct. 23.

The resolution declared that passage of Proposition 1 would have an adverse effect on the educational programs of the District in the opinion of the board.

It stated that the Reagan initiative would freeze its tax formulas into rigid constitutional law and its passage would result in a tax shift from the state to cities, counties and local districts through termination of state subventions.

Saturday's Pool-a-Thon To Raise Aquatic Center Fund

Junior Gantz is helping a local community cause again! He'll be making a personal appearance at the Miguel Community Aquatic Center Saturday at Gunther Pool. Mr. Gantz, a star swimmer, is well-known in the area and frequently contributes his time to worthwhile projects. At noon on Saturday, Mr. Gantz will be at Gunther Pool to encourage swimmers and share his talents with the spectators.

Pool-A-Thon day will kick off Saturday morning at 9 a.m. when Dr. Robert Pyle, Mount Miguel principal, dives into the pool. Highlights of the day, in addition to Junior Gantz's appearance, will include music from the Pep Band, a drop-in appearance from Tom Kelly, KCBQ disc jockey, and the payoffs of the swimming challenges that have been building up.

The most notorious challenge is between Coach Ned Blass of Mount Miguel and Bev Schuff of the Miguel Booster Club. At 3 p.m. Mrs. Schuff will reveal the strengths of her sponsorship and her water-wings.

During the day, from 9 to 5, swimmers of the community will be doing the hard work of the Pool-A-Thon. For the last 3 weeks, students at all the grade schools and junior high schools in the Lemon Grove - Spring Valley area and Mt. Miguel High School have been recruiting sponsors from parents, neighbors, businesses, organizations and friends.

Tickets are $1.00 for adults and 75 cents for students. The Drama Club will provide refreshments during intermission.

Nov. 7 Hearing Set On Higher Utility Rates

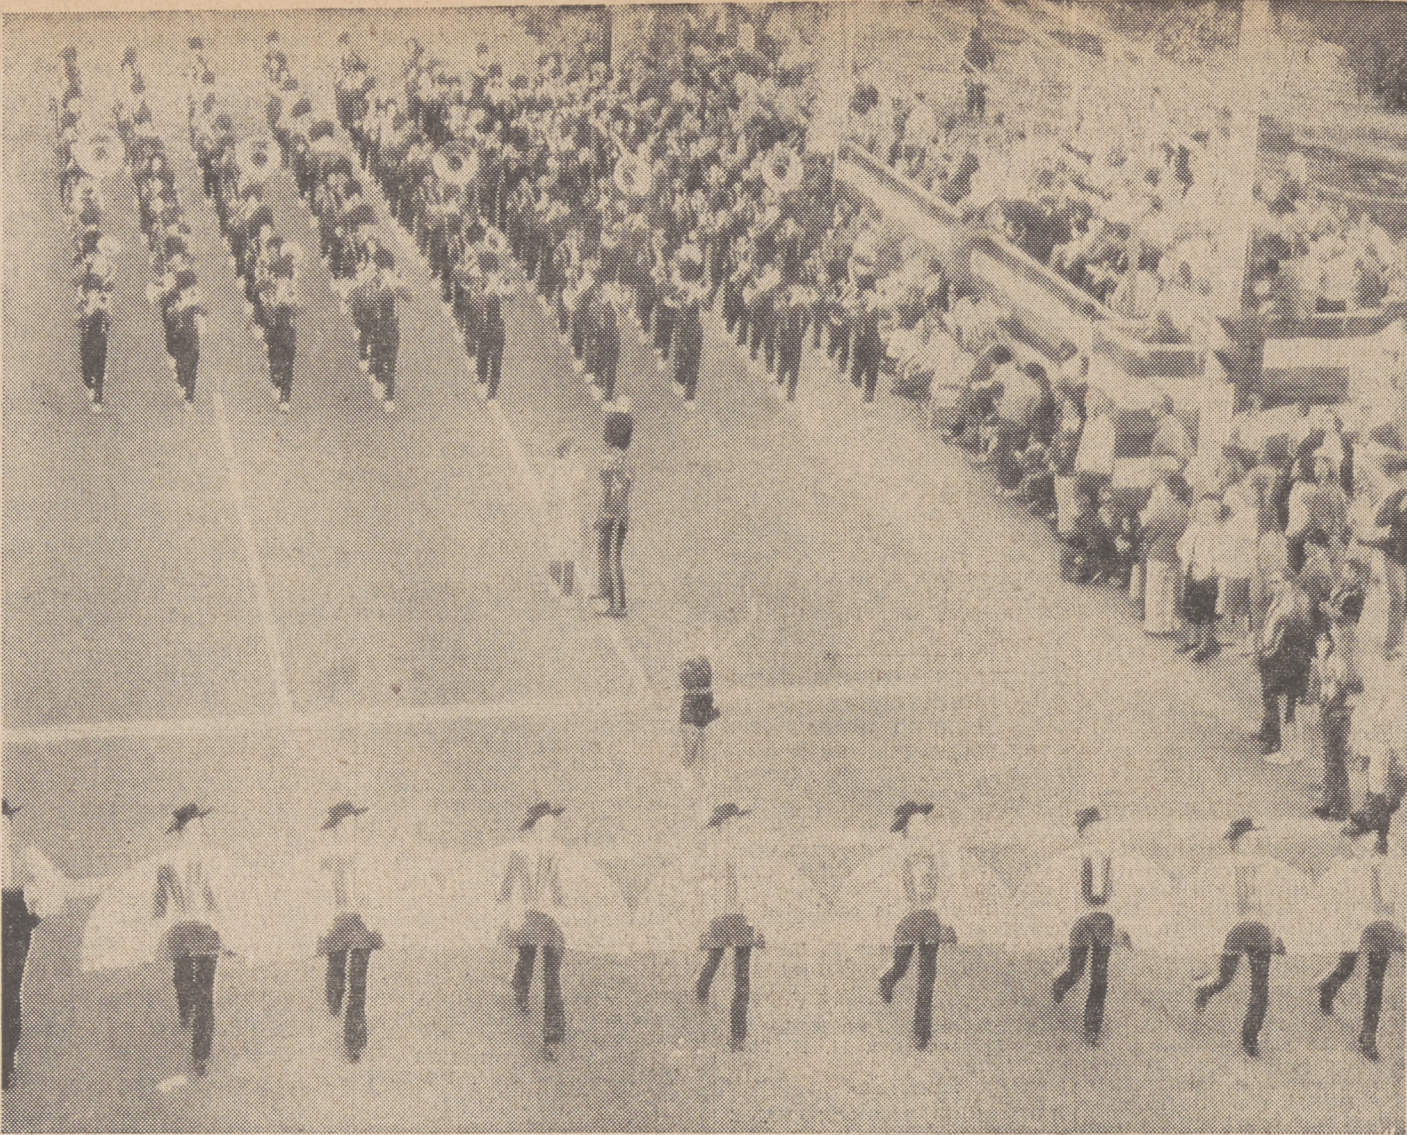

Customers of San Diego Gas & Electric who want to testify on the utility's request for a $25.7 million annual rate increase will be heard Wednesday, Nov. 7, the California Public Utilities Commission announces.

Proceedings will begin at 10 a.m. in the auditorium of the utility's offices, 101 Ash st., San Diego, with Commissioner Thomas Moran and Examiner Charles E. Mattson presiding.

San Diego Gas & Electric is seeking increases of $17,858,000 or 9.35% for its electric department, $7,852,000 or 10.44% for gas, and $56,000 or 8.93% for steam.

Higher costs of borrowed capital, labor and construction expenditures for environmental protection are cited as major reason for the rate increase request.

Under the rates sought, bills for the typical residential usage would go up 73.8 cents for electricity and 86.8 cents for gas.

MARCHING TO THE ROSE PARADE. Mount Miguel High School's outstanding marching band and Banderettes group again is bound for the Tournament of Roses Parade in Pasadena on New Year's Day. The Matador musicians won the right to represent San Diego County schools by winning sweepstakes honors before 3,500 persons Saturday at the annual Autumn Band Review at Naval Training Center. This will be Mount Miguel's sixth time to march in the Pasadena festival, a record for San Diego County schools. Entered in the parade will be the full 160-piece Matador band.

Foreign Students Honored At Grossmont College Tea

Grossmont College President and Mrs. Erv F. Metzgar opened their La Mesa home to civic leaders, college governing board members, administrators, faculty members and student leaders October 28 for a tea hosted by the Associated Students of Grossmont College (ASGC), honoring the nearly 100 international students attending the college.

Twenty-seven countries scattered around the world are represented by Grossmont College's foreign students. The largest group comes from Southeast Asia with South Vietnam leading with 23 students followed by Thailand with eight, Hong Kong with seven and Malaysia with three.

Two Australian students are attending the college under the Student Exchange Program sponsored by the ASGC. On Nov. 10-11, said Ray Sanchez, Nation Chief.

Many of the international students transfer to four-year schools after completing their studies at Grossmont College and upon their return to their own countries, take leading roles in business, industry, education and government.

Grossmont College's foreign student program is considered outstanding among the California community colleges. Each foreign student must be competent in English and be enrolled in certain orientation programs for foreign students. The program has resulted in a highly successful educational experience for the foreign students.

State 'Workfare' Program Helps Welfare Problems

California's "workfare" programs to find jobs for employable welfare recipients are being expanded, according to Health and Welfare Secretary Earl Brian.

"For two years we have been introducing these programs gradually on a county by county basis, but the results are so far ahead of our expectations that we're stepping up the pace to get these programs going in all counties where there's a significant welfare caseload," Brian said.

Brian said letters have been sent to all county welfare directors requesting them to prepare the necessary plans and budgets to be operational by Dec. 1, 1973.

Two programs are involved, he said: the Employables Program and the Community Work Experience Program.

At the present time, the Employables Program operates in 35 of the State's 58 counties, he said, and the intention is to implement it in another 14. The Work Experience Program, now operating in 17 counties, will be extended to 35 counties.

Brian explained that the basic concept of both programs is that employable welfare recipients must register for work through the nearest state employment office and must accept training or work for which they are qualified or lose their rights to welfare benefits.

"We have indisputable evidence that these programs are paying off," Brian said. "Last fiscal year, in counties without these programs, only one in every six employable welfare recipients was placed in a job. In counties with the Employables Program, the rate was one in every three. In counties with both the Employables Program and the Community Work Experience Program, the rate was about one in every two."

Brian issued the following specific figures for fiscal year July 1972 through June 1973: —Counties with no "workfare" program, 39,911 placed (13.7 percent); —Counties with Employables Program only, 30,124 registered, 9,190 placed (30.5 percent); —Counties with Employables Program and Community Work Experience Program, 17,520 registered, 8,077 placed (46.1 percent).

The County of San Diego is making plans to expand El Monte Regional Park near Lakeside.

According to a recent study, El Monte is one of the most popular regional parks among county residents. El Monte was ranked fifth in popularity behind Balboa, Mission Bay, Torrey Pines, and Palomar in a survey conducted as part of the San Diego County Regional Parks implementation study.

Featuring an attractive woodland setting, El Monte Park covers 90 acres located close enough to major population centers to attract many day-use visitors.

The annual picnic attendance figure at El Monte has nearly doubled in ten years, according to statistics kept by the County Department of Parks and Recreation. Last year picnic attendance was recorded at 457,091, almost twice the 1963 figure of 294,183.

Overcrowding at the park has become a major problem with Sunday and holiday crowds exceeding recommended park capacity. Expansion of the park will relieve the overcrowding and also allow families to picnic apart from organized group activities.

Mayor Pete Wilson and Board of Supervisor Chairman, Jack Walsh, will be on hand to welcome Dr. Scott to San Diego and launch the day's activities.

Highlights of the day will feature a multi-cultural mural done by the Eddy Edwards artists and students donated to the Scout Headquarters site. Art students will also direct a participating mural activity for Scouts on a paper roll the length of the Scout parking lot.

The Max Mazzettis from the Rincon Indian Reservation in Valley Center will prepare a mid-afternoon meal for the Scouts consisting of buffalo burgers, barbecued beans, and wewish, a specially prepared acorn meal. The buffalo is air freighted from a ranch in Wyoming.

Adults attending the event will have their own workshop during the morning conducted by Ms. Shirley Thomas, Assistant Professor at San Diego State, focusing on the "Celebration of Difference".

Mrs. Sam Williams of La Mesa is the event coordinator. Approximately 500 Scouts and girls from Junior High School throughout the County are expected to attend.

A queen bee may lay as many as 1,500 eggs a day, more than the weight of her own body.

The average new automobile has more than 600 rubber parts.

Forrest Finders is instructor. The course will stress the importance of extra skills and awareness required while driving recreational vehicles. Electrical, liquid petroleum gas and water systems will be discussed with recommendations for maintenance and safety.
